Our Flag Forever.

"I know of no mode in which a loyal citizen may so well demonstrate his devotion to his country as by sustaining the Flag the Constitution and the Union, under all circumstances, and UNDER EVERY ADMINISTRATION, REGARDLESS OF PARTY POLITICS, AGAINST ALL ASSAILANTS, AT HOME AND ABROAD."—STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS.

☞ A STOUT BOY, sixteen or seventeen years of age, wanted as an apprentice to the printing business at this office, immediately.

A FULL SHEET.—We have force enough now in our office to put out a full sheet after this week.

THE "MONITOR" ATTACKED AGAIN.—There appears to be a determination on the part of the loyal soldiers that the Monitor office shall either be closed up or completely destroyed a second time. This Monday forenoon a squad of some twenty men of Capt. Schrach's company, entered the office, but before any damage was done, the Capt. made his appearance and persuaded his men from their purpose.—After giving three groans for the office the men returned to their headquarters at the Court House.

We are not in favor of mob law.—We are not in favor of destroying the Monitor office—and never have by word or act given any encouragement to have it disturbed by soldier or citizen. Yet we have been charged as the instigator of every attack that has been made upon the office. The contemptible pup Petrikin, with the assistance of the thing Owen, had us arrested and bound over as one of the party guilty of destroying the office the first time. Yes, Petrikin wrote it, and Owen swore to it, that we were in the building in broad day-light, and that we did handle and destroy the type, etc. Now the truth is, we were in our office during the whole time the Monitor was being destroyed, not knowing that the destruction was going on. After we receive our trial we shall have something more to say on the subject.

The office was attacked the second time, two weeks ago, and immediately the cowardly whelps charged us as the instigator, and threatened that our office must be destroyed to secure theirs against any attack in the future. We have not been within sight of the Monitor office to-day, yet we would not be surprised if some one or more of the editors would go before a Justice before night and swear that we headed the party that visited their office this morning. They appear to be determined to drag us into all their difficulties, even should it take as hard swearing as the meanest scoundrel on earth could be guilty of. If they succeed in persuading their tools to attack our office, we will not hold ourself responsible for what certainly will follow.

THE DRAFT IN THE WEST.—We are gratified that but few of the drafted young men in the Western States take advantage of the $300 exemption. They say:—"We may have many years to live—and after the rebellion is subdued we may be asked what we did to defeat the rebels and save our country. If we pay the $300, we will be respected only for paying what we had to; but we could lay no claims to patriotism—could not point with pride to the battles we participated in, and would be compelled to take a back seat with those of our fellow citizens who were active sympathizers of the rebels."

A HANDSOME TREAT.—On Friday night last, we were waked up from a sound sleep—first by our string band, and at a later hour by a brass and string band from Baltimore, on their way to Bedford Springs. The Baltimore party were all colored gentlemen, and understood their occupation well. Better music we never heard and we hope they will give us another call on their return. Our band will not fail to disturb us frequently.

—The rebel General Morgan and several of his officers arrived at Columbus, Ohio, on Thursday afternoon last, and were lodged in the Penitentiary. After bathing and being searched, they were conducted to the cells, where they will be confined according to the rules of that institution, until they are finally disposed off, which should be by hanging.

—Vallandighamism is breaking down in Ohio. Three prominent presses in the State, heretofore supporting the Vallandigham Democracy, have within a few days, taken his name down as their candidate for Governor, and raised that of Brough, the Union candidate. Light is breaking in upon the honest masses—and treason will be crushed.

THE rebel Monitor clique want the people to believe them to be simon pure Democrats. If all the matter published in that sheet speaks the sentiments of the editor and those having immediate control of him and his columns, then the word traitor should be branded upon their foreheads in letters so plain that all men, all women, all children, could point them out as enemies to their country and their God. No loyal man can read the traitor sheet without feeling that its publication here is a disgrace to our county—that if law gives it a license to encourage opposition to the demands of the Government for aid to suppress the rebellion of traitors, and to misrepresent and vilify officers and privates in the ranks, and the loyal men, women and children of the town, then the law should be repealed. We are in favor of "free speech and the freedom of the press," but we are opposed to the abuse of either by irresponsible men, to say the least, of doubtful loyalty.

The last Monitor is filled with treason. Here is a paragraph from its columns:

"A Democrat in the North, however loyal and patriotic he may be, hardly knows whether to rejoice or repine over the success of the Federal army."

Why not rejoice? Simply because, as the Monitor says in another part of the article, our soldiers threaten to attend to home traitors when the war is over. Home traitors are not Democrats—they are Copperheads. Copperheads are not Democrats, but they claim to be, because some Democrats are foolish enough to accept them as leaders. All Democrats are loyal men and work harmoniously in the great Union party now trying to save the country. Home traitors (or Copperheads if you please,) cannot expect to be treated as loyal men by the brave soldier or his friends. We would advise all honest Democrats to cut the acquaintance of their leaders—to support the Government, and save our country, even should the Democratic party organization for a time be disorganized. Our country first—our party afterwards.

THE WAY COPPERHEADS TALK.—We find in a New York rebel sympathizing paper the following reasons given bya Seymour Democrat why he is a traitor:

"Those who were instrumental in bringing the war upon us should fight it out.

"I want to see those who made the fire burn in it.

"I love my whole country, and do not want to run the risk of being stigmatized as a fool or a traitor, for having voluntarily, hands in this sea of fratricidal blood.

"If I am drafted—I of course won't go. If I had wanted to go, should have gone long ago."

Who does not know that the disunion Democratic organization South, with the assistance of the Buchanan and Breckenridge organization North, were instrumental in bringing the war upon us—and yet there are those professing to be Democrats and loyal men who try to deceive themselves and the masses into the belief that Abrahm Lincoln and the Republican party were instrumental in bringing the war upon the country. If the leaders in the North who were instrumental in part in bringing the war upon us could be forced into the ranks to fight their "brethren" of the South, very few loyal tears would be shed if every one of them should fall. "Those who made the fire, should burn in it."

Our brave soldiers are denounced by the tools of the South, as fools and traitors for resisting the tyranical rule of the slave driving aristocrats of the South. The day is not far distant when the present leaders of the so-called Democratic organization will be compelled by loyal public opinion to change their sentiments or seek peace in the land of Southern traitors.

Where the Drafted Men are to be Sent.

Drafted men or their substitutes are to be sent to Philadelphia from the following counties:—Philadelphia, Bucks, Montgomery, Lehigh, Chester, Delaware, Monroe, Wayne, Susquehanna, Berks, Lancaster, Schuylkill, Lebanon, Northampton, Carbon, Pike, Luzerne.

Those from the following counties are to be sent to Carlile:—Bradford, Wyoming, Sullivan, Union, Juniata, Cumberland, Perry, Franklin, Bedford, Cambria, Huntingdon, Centre, Lycoming, Potter, Columbia, Montour, Northumberland, Snyder, Dauphin, York, Adams, Fulton, Somerset, Blair, Mifflin, Clinton, Tioga.

Those from the following counties are to be sent to Pittsburgh:—Erie, Warren, McKean, Forrest, Elk, Cameron, Jefferson, Clearfield, Crawford, Venango, Mercer, Clarion, Indiana, Westmoreland, Fayette, Allegheny, Butler, Armstrong, Lawrence, Beaver, Washington and Greene.

After a drafted man pays $300 for his exemption the responsibility rests upon the Government for furnishing a substitute, and if a drafted man fails to report, it does not involve a necessity for his district to furnish another to take his place, but the authorities will arrest him, wherever found, as a deserter.

UNION MEETING.—A Union meeting of all the congregations and loyal citizens, will be held in the Methodist E. Church, on Thursday next, the day of thanksgiving and prayer, at 11 o'clock.

THE "MONITOR" ATTACKS THE LADIES.—The last Monitor makes an ungentlemanly attack upon the ladies of the town, simply because some of them refuse to associate with Caldwell, Speer and others of the clique connected with that office. It says:

"There are those who aspire to the proud name of LADIES, who take pride in conduct which proves them shamefully unworthy of the title."

Ladies, we suppose, have a perfect right to pick their company, and if they do not see proper to associate with young men of doubtful loyalty, they show their good sense by coming to such conclusion. Rebel sympathisers have no business in the company of loyal ladies or gentlemen. Loyal ladies have no sympathy for rebel sympathisers. We glory in the patriotism of the ladies who have offended the Monitor editors.

MAJOR GEN. GRANT.—The Bedford Gazette, as rank a secession paper as any printed in the South, claims Gen. Grant as a Democrat of the "copperhead" kind. Grant's brilliant victories proves him to be a genuine war Democrat—a fighting Democrat. If he had been a "peace Democrat" of the Vallandigham school, such as all the leaders of the present hogus Democracy are, he would have had no desire to take Vicksburg. Grant was a friend of Douglas in the campaign of '60, and since then has been an earnest supporter of the Administration and its whole war policy. He looks with holy horror upon the "peace Democracy" of the North, which has been a "fire in the rear" of his gallant army. We love such Democrats as Major General Grant. The rebel Gazette can't steal our thunder.

THE Monitor faction considers it perfectly "constitutional" for them to induce their followers to cut the acquaintance of loyal publishers and business men generally, but they consider it "unconstitutional" for loyal men and women to refuse to associate or deal with disloyal men. We know that in this immediate neighborhood those most interested in the success of the Monitor Democracy, have been earnestly at work for months, but as quietly as possible, to injure the business of loyal citizens. If the loyal citizens are now retaliating, the disloyal and their dupes, have nobody to blame but themselves.

VALLANDIGHAM STOCK DOWN.—Another Democatic paper—The American Union, published at Stubenville, Ohio, and edited by John Sheridan—refuses to support Vallandigham for Governor. It has been the Democratic organ of Jefferson County for more than thirty years. In an article published on the 15th ult., the Union refers to the noise made by Vallandigham about States' rights, and an armistice, and observes:

"If the party adopt the peculiar views on this subject (State rights) of the great South Carolinian, John C. Calhoun, then the former position occupid by the Democratic party has been wrong, and we have but found out since the latter day Democracy are playing the dence with the party, that Jackson and all such ordinary men as him didn't know what Democracy consisted of, and of what ingredients it was composed, notwithstanding the history of the country shows that when secession raised its head with John C. Calhoun for a leader, that he proved to be the man for the crisis, and the "Pilot who weathered the storm" crushed the great Nullifier and his followers, and as long as he lived was thanked by the whole nation for his prompt action for so doing. It was never mooted again until Jackson and Calhoun died.

We, as an editor, stand to day where we did the first day the first gun was fired on Fort Sumter. Nearly the whole party stood with us then, as we believe it does now. We will not be intimidated or wheedled into a wrong position. We will stand between the camps of the Israelites and Phillistines, and we can cry, in the hour of degeneracy, woe to the leadors of the great Democratic party, until, like ancient Ninevah, the people will awake and come up to the purification of the Democratic temple, and overthrow those who are trying to place the party in a false position. This will be done."

The Monitor faction say the destruction of their office has made them money. We have no doubt of it. No wonder they continue to pursue a course well calculated to excite the passions of loyal soldiers. They want their office destroyed a second time that they may have an excuse for passing their hats around again. A sharp trick to swindle their tools, but not any more dishonest than many others the clique have been guilty of. We hope the soldiers and all other loyal citizens will keep their hands off, and let the tory sheet "peg out" in the usual way, as it certainly will as soon as the honest Democratic masses get their eyes open.

—Since 1st of last February, Col. Wilder, of Roscerans' army, has been twenty-eight times through the rebel lines, and taken 1,157 prisoners, about 4,000 horses, and a small army of slaves. In the last expedition he took about 600 prisoners, 800 horses, and 250 slaves, killed ten guerrillas, and mortally wounded Col. Gant. He lost one man, private Stewart, of the 17th Indiana. He has hung five and shot fifteen rebels, including a second lieut., caught with our uniform on, in accordance with the orders of Gen. Roscerans. Wilder is chief of the famous mounted infantry.

The Nomination for Gov. in Maine.

In Maine, the Republican gubernatorial incumbent was defeated by the Republicans, and a war Democrat chosen as their candidate for Governor. A cotemporary gives the following account of the scene which took place at Bangor, Maine, in the Republican Convention on the 1st of July:

"Another fine example of generosity to the loyal Democrats, on the part of the Republicans, was set at the great Republican Convention held at Bangor, Maine, on the 1st of July. In the call of the Republican State Committee, they invited not only the Republicans to participate, but all loyal to the Government and in favor of an unconditional support of the Administration in suppressing the rebellion. The result was such a delegate convention as has never assembled in the Commonwealth of Maine. More than twelve hundred delegates representing two hundred and ninety-eight towns, appeared, and of this number a very large percentage was composedof those who have uniformly acted with the Democratic party, but who now see in Mr. Lincoln's Administration the Government of their country in action to defend and preserve the liberties of the American people. Among them were McCobb, Jewett, Smart, Lowell, Peters, and other household names of the Democracy. Gov. Coburn, the Republican executive, who has served with so much fidelity in that post for one term, and was entitled by the usages of the Republican party to a renomination, through his friend, Hon. James G. Blaine, member of Congress elect from the Kennebbec (Maine) district, generously offered to waive the honor of a nomination, if a more worthy citizen could be found to make the canvass, and pledged himself and his friends to the support of the nominee, whoever he might be. After electing a Democrat, Mr. McCobb, president of the Convention, the balloting for Governor commenced, with the following result: For Abner Coburn (Republican,) 442 votes; for Samuel Coney (Democrat), 486 votes; Joseph William (Democrat) 192 votes. Upon which Mr. Morris, the friend and business partner of Mr. Coburn, withdrew his name. On the succeeding and final ballot of nine hundred and eighty votes thrown, Samuel Coney (Democrat) received eight hundred and eighty, upon which his nomination was made unanimous, amidst the most protracted and enthusiastic cheering. It is significant that Mr. Coney, who was thus unexpectedly to himself selected as the Union candidate for Governor, was himself a delegate from his own town, and voted for Mr. Coburn's nomination. Mr. Coney is a gentleman of high character and ability, and having been chosen by the Democratic party to the office of Judge of Probate, Land Agent of the State, and State Treasurer for five years, being the full term allowed by the Constitution of Maine. His election is certain by an immense majority."

This is the spirit that leads to victory. It is the spirit of self-sacrifice and the sublimest patriotism.

To-day, Wednesday, the Union Convention of this State meets in Pittsburg to put in nomination candidates for Governor and Judge of the Supreme Court. Whether the nominee for Governor be a war Democrat or a Republican, we shall support him with all the ability we possess. We are well satisfied that the Convention will give us a loyal, competent and honest man—a man all loyal men can vote for in opposition to Woodward the nominee of the rebel sympathizing bogus Democracy.

—Among the attractions presented by the authorities of the Pennsylvania Teachers' Association, which meets at Reading, on the 4th, 5th and 6th of August, is a speech by Major General Sigel. The General has been a teacher and a school director, both in New York and St. Louis, and from the interest which he has always manifested in our public school system and in the advancement of popular education, the teachers of the State may expect an interesting address.

Army of the Potomac.

WASHINGTON, July 31.

Information received to-day from the army of the Potomac, states that Gen. Lee massed his forces at Culpepper on Wednesday, and made other preparations to give us battle on the Rappahannock. His first advance South of Culpepper was to foil us in taking the Fredericksburg, route, but finding that we did not advance, he concentrated his army at Culpeper.

The Rappahannock is guarded from Fredericksburg to Ely's Ford, and on the Rappidan by only one rebel regiment. The Rapidan is fortified south of Culpepper.

Information was received to-day of a raid by Moseby's men on Fairfax Court House last night. They entered the place about 10 o'clock and captured a number of suttler's wagons loaded with goods.

Col. Lowell, with the 2nd Massachusetts regiment of cavalry, went in pursuit of them.

The Movement against Charleston.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The steamship Belvidere, from Port Royal July 29, arrived here this morning. She brings home the One Hundred and Seventy-Fourth Penna. Regt., whose term is expired.

By this arrival we have news from our forces near Charleston to Wednesday last, the 29th ult., A. M. on that day. At that time the new Ironsides and two of the monitors were engaging Fort Wagner.

General Gilmore had succeeded in constructing a long line of batteries within 250 yards of Fort Wagner. He had also mounted three heavy siege guns within one mile and a quarter of Fort Sumter, which were to open on that Fort the day the steamer left. The General was confident that when he got all his heavy siege guns mounted he would soon reduce Sumter.

The casualties on our side have been few in number.

THE militia will return to this place from Hopewell this, Tuesday, afternoon.

IT is not certain that the draft for this district will be commenced this week.

FLAX! FLAX!! FLAX!!!

THE UNDERSIGNED HAS SECURED the latest improved machinery for breaking and scutching Flax. It is now in successful operation. I desire it to be understood that I am prepared to buy all the flax that the farmers raise, above their household wants, and at they desire I will prepare what they want for their own use. This machinery will dress in two days more flax than one man can in the ordinary way in thirty days. The flax after it is pulled and seperated from the stock, should be spread on a meadow, thinly and regularly, to be exposed to the dews for a week or ten days until the stock assumes a silver grey color, the under side should then be turned up and treated in the same way. On a dry day it can then be tied in bundles and is ready for the mill. It is not necessary to dry it by fire or smoke it over an oven, as that is only trouble for nothing. An acre of good flax is worth from thirty to thirty-five dollars without counting the seed. Straw will also be bought.
